ONLINE CONTENT COORDINATOR

Do you like sports? Do you like to know everything first? Boy, do we have the job for you! KHQ-TV and SWX-TV are looking for an Online Content Coordinator. KHQ is the NBC affiliate in Spokane, WA. SWX is the nation's premiere local sports and weather channel. Together, we're building the the premiere local sports website. That's where you come in. We need a sports addict to parse, pixilate and punctuate the voluminous, award-winning sports content we gather on a nightly basis and prepare that for our online audience. That means you need to know how to write and write well. You also have to have some digital savvy; though we're not looking for the next hacker. And you should know a wide variety of sports. Oh yeah, don't forget about that typical "works well under pressure" and "self-starter" stuff. This is the media. We sweat as much as the athletes. Interested? Please send your resume and cover letter to John Fritz at: John.Fritz@khq.com. EEO. Women & minorities encouraged to apply.
