

FOSTERing MBA Access

Increasing Opportunities for Communities of Color

Foster MBA Graduates and Current Students of Color Panel

Discover how professionals of color decided to pursue an MBA and how it has helped enhance their careers. It will be an eventful evening of honest discussion and great networking with business leaders of color, Foster MBA Administrators, and current MBA students of color.

September 18, 2014
5:30 P.M.—7:30 P.M.

Deloitte Commons

PACCAR Hall

University of Washington

To register, please
RSVP here or at <<http://goo.gl/CcxwW>>
by Sept. 16th

Panelists Include:

Tania Elahee

Starbucks Coffee Company
Class of 2008

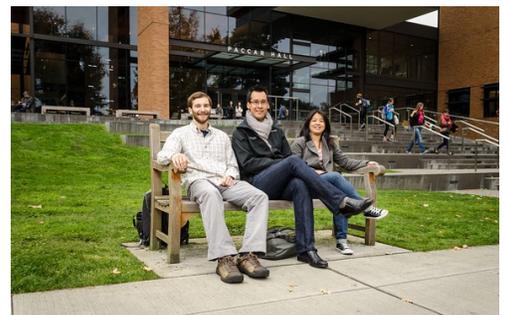

Jenna Caluza

JD and Full-time MBA Candidate
Class of 2015

Erick Cruz

Evening MBA Candidate
Class of 2016

Free and open to the public.
Light refreshments provided.

FOSTERing MBA Access: A series of events dedicated to increase awareness and access to MBA-level education in communities of color.

Think differently.

It's the Washington Way.

Sponsored by: Foster MBA Program Office, Foster Diversity in Business Club, and MBA Career Management